Toyin Falola - Wikipedia

The unconscious drift of our social sciences in immersing African realities into western epistemologies was palpable in many of the theses, dissertations, journal articles and book manuscripts I happened to review at the time. Let me be clear that this is not a new issue in the (global) African academe; if anything, this structure was birthed ...

The legendary humility of Toyin Falola disguises the unfathomable depth of his knowledge. With seven books and several essays on him, the attempt to understand Falola has become both an industry and a religion an industry because the plethora of his original ideas demand interpretation and intervention; and a religion because of his uncommon talents, extraordinary complexity, and productivity.
